

New Hampshire's Homeless Management Information System

With your permission, we collect and enter personal information into a computer database system for reasons that are fully discussed in our "Notice of Uses and Disclosures."

Other information that we collect is important to run our programs and to improve services for persons experiencing homelessness.

We appreciate your cooperation with this process.